

Date:

To: Director of the Information and Communication Headquarters

Nagoya University ID Application

I hereby request to be issued a Nagoya University ID.

Applicant

Name: _____

Affiliation: _____

Phone number: _____

Email address: _____

Student ID number (if you have one): _____

Status:

- Undergraduate research student Graduate research student
 Special research student Non-degree student Audit student
 Trainee Daily worker
 Research fellow of the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science
 Other (_____)

Reference

Name: (seal) _____

Affiliation: _____

Job title: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email address: _____

* Please submit the application to the General Affairs Section (in charge of shared use), Information Promotion Division of the Information and Communications Headquarters.

When submitting the application, please bring the following two items with you: (1) Basic Authentication Information Table (Attachment 1) and (2) a photo ID to check your date of birth, such as a driver's license, passport, etc.

* The information registered will be removed from the enrollment registry when the current school year ends. If you continue to be enrolled the following school year, please submit the Notification of Updating Registered Information for the Nagoya University ID by March 25 to update your registered information.

Receipt number: _____

Basic Authentication Information (Attachment 1)

	Surname	Middle name	Given name
Kanji	(名大)		(太郎)
Alphabetical Characters	(Meidai)		(Taro)
Katakana	(メイダイ)		(タロウ)

Please refer to (examples) and fill out the table.

Job title
Job category
Affiliated department
Affiliated department / major / section
Date of birth
Gender

Legend: Treatment of each basic authentication item (The background color for the table is divided by the type of treatment as described below.)

The information will be provided to University information service providers on their request; provided, however, that the information will be deleted after the applicant is removed from the enrollment registry in accordance with Articles 10 and 11 of the Nagoya University Personal Information Protection Rules.

The information will be provided to University information service providers on their request and be used for any operation with the Nagoya University ID as well as after you are removed from the enrollment registry regardless of the existence of your application. (The service will be provided when you are enrolled and will not be provided when you are removed from the enrollment registry; provided, however, that the service will be provided after removal from the enrollment registry if you so request.)

The information will not be provided to University information service providers regardless of your enrollment or removal from the enrollment registry. The information will be used only for services and operations provided by the Information and Communications Headquarters.